

School Age 10 back-to-school must-haves

This gear will help your little scholar get off to a great start!

Lock it up

Does your child have a locker this year? While decorating a locker is practically a rite-of-passage when it comes to middle and high school, it's also very important to have a high-quality lock to keep everything safe. We like this WordLock — instead of a number code, each lock comes with a simple word, the letters of which compose the locker code.
