

four problem-solvers, from $10

showerhead adapter, $30

PROBLEM:

While the shower heats up, you multitask...and waste water.

SOLUTION: Connect the ShowerStart Evolve Lady Bug to any showerhead. When the water is hot, the adapter switches the flow to a trickle. Ready to get in? Just pull the cord to restore the regular pressure.

TO BUY: evolve showerheads.com.

camera extender, $30

PROBLEM:

You're ready for your close-up, but no one is around to take it.

SOLUTION: Attach the XShot to your camera's tripod mount, set the timer, and say, "Cheese." The light rod extends 37 inches, so you can hold it in front of yourself for self-portraits with no arm in the frame.

TO BUY: xshot pix.com.

padlock, $10

PROBLEM:

Turn twice to 27, then left to.... Wait—what's the combination?

SOLUTION: How's this for simple but genius? The Wordlock lets you set your own five-letter combination instead of the usual series of numbers. You'll never be seen cursing your gym locker again.

TO BUY: target.com.

toaster bag, $10 for four

PROBLEM:

Grilled cheese sandwiches are 90 percent perfect. (Subtract 10 points for cleanup.)

SOLUTION: Skip the frying pan and slip a cheese sandwich into a reusable and dishwasher-safe Toastabag. Cook in a toaster for about three minutes and—voilà!—you're 100 percent happy.
